Contents of Volume 1

Editorial by G. E. Briggs and R. W. Schulz, 1

PSYCHOMOTOR TASKS

Some confounding factors in the study of preparatory set in reaction time by R. Elliott, 13

The role of configuration and target discriminability in a visual search task by J. R. Pomerantz and W. R. Garner, 64

The Stroop phenomenon and its use in the study of perceptual cognitive and response processes by F. N. Dyer, 106

Ready-signal effects as a function of experimental design in simple reaction time by K. Henriksen and J. D. Holmes, 141

Linear representation of temporal location and Stevens's law by B. S. Gorman, A. E. Wessman, G. R. Schmeidler, S. Thayer, and E. G. Mannucci, 169

The time required to prepare for a rotated stimulus by L. A. Cooper and R. N. Shepard, 246

Sex composition and group performance in a visual signal detection task by D. E. Clement and J. J. Schiereck, Jr., 251

Search reaction time for single targets in multiletter stimuli with brief visual displays by J. T. Townsend and R. N. Roos, 319

Confidence in stimulus predictions and choice reaction time by E. S. Geller and C. P. Whitman, 361

INFORMATION PROCESSING

On the selection of signals by M. I. Posner, R. Klein, J. Summers, and S. Buggie, 2

Processing demands of sequential information by S. W. Keele and S. J. Boies, 85

On the nature of central processing in choice reactions by G. E. Briggs and A. M. Johnsen, 91

Competing responses and the processing of irrelevant information by M. H. Hodge, 124

Cognitive masking in rapid sequential processing: The effect of an emotional picture on preceding and succeeding pictures by M. H. Erdelyi and D. G. Blumenthal, 201

Effects of information relevance on decision making in complex environments by S. C. Streufert, 224

The perception of identity in simultaneously presented complex visual displays by W. P. Silverman, 459

RECOGNITION

The effects of auditory shadowing on recognition of information received visually by H. A. Rollins and R. Thibadeau, 164

Repetition and laterality effects on recognition memory for words and pictures by J. F. Juola, 183

Letter identification in relation to linguistic context and masking conditions by E. L. Bjork and W. K. Estes, 217

I recognize your face but I can't remember your name: Further evidence on the tip-of-the-tongue phenomenon by A. D. Yarmey, 287

Failure to find a syllabic effect in number naming by L. Henderson, M. Coltheart, and D. Woodhouse, 304

Recoding processes in recognition: Some effects of presentation rate by C. Clifton, Jr., D. Cruse, and K. D. Gutschera, 387

Can characters be classified directly as digits vs letters or must they be identified first? by R. S. Nickerson, 477

MEMORY

Critical issues in interference theory by L. Postman and B. J. Underwood, 19

Effects of serial position and set size in auditory recognition memory by A. Wingfield, 53

Perceived frequency of concrete and abstract words by R. C. Galbraith and B. J. Underwood, 56

Degree of training and the novelty transfer effect by D. A. Taylor and A. Binder, 61

Transformations on sets in short-term memory: Temporal and spatial factors influencing deletion by D. V. DeRosa and M. Sabol, 69

Set size and order requirements in immediate memory by J. V. Hinrichs and G. McKoon, 73

Isolation of massed- and distributed-practice items by D. G. Elmes, L. W. Sanders, and J. C. Dovel, 77

Must overlearned lists be scanned? by C. Clifton, Jr., 121

Storage and retrieval of low-frequency words by C. P. Duncan, 129

Context effects and the recall of comparative sentences by J. Benjafield and L. Giesbrecht, 133

On the independence of judged frequencies for items presented in successive lists by C. S. Reichardt, J. J. Shaughnessy, and J. Zimmerman, 149

Part-list recall following part-whole learning by S. T. Carey and R. Okada, 172

The Ranschburg effect: Stimulus variables and scoring criterion by S. P. Mewaldt and J. V. Hinrichs, 177

Influence of marihuana on storage and retrieval processes in memory by C. F. Darley, J. R. Tinklenberg, W. T. Roth, L. E. Hollister, and R. C. Atkinson, 196

Memory for noun pairs in the same or different underlying strings by K. C. Allison, S. E. Newman, and W. S. Ford, 205

Relationship of visual and name similarity of visually presented letters by L. F. Alwitt, 209

Retrieval difficulty and subsequent recall by J. M. Gardiner, F. I. M. Craik, and F. A. Bleasdale, 213

Recognition memory and the recall of spatial location by A. I. Schulman, 256

Effect of forget instructions with and without the conditions for selective search by W. Shebilske and W. Epstein, 261

Encoding differences in recognition and recall by S. T. Carey and R. S. Lockhart, 297

Short-term retention of superimposed and of spatially distinct multiletter visual arrays by S. R. Parkinson, N. E. A. Kroll, and T. E. Parks, 301

Remembering operations by P. A. Kolers, 347

Organization and long-term memory search by D. Homa, 369

The effect of stimulus complexity on retrieval of information from memory by P. Tolin and G. M. Delegans, 380

Memory for modality of presentation: Within-modality discrimination by L. L. Light, C. Stansbury, C. Rubin, and S. Linde, 395

Differential feature analysis in the recognition memory of reflective and impulsive children by R. R. Kilburg and A. W. Siegel, 413

Spacing effects in picture memory by D. L. Hintzman and M. K. Rogers, 430

Presentation modality and proactive interference in short-term retention using a mixed-modality distractor task by R. H. Hopkins, R. E. Edwards, F. M. V. Tamayo, M. A. Holman, and C. L. Cook, 439

Effects of short-term memory contents on short- and long-term memory searches by R. C. Mohs, K. T. Wescourt, and R. C. Atkinson, 443

An analysis of the visual component in recognition memory for verbal stimuli by K. Kirsner, 449

Memory for redundant information by G. R. Potts, 467

The concept of coding in learning-memory theory by A. W. Melton, 508

LEARNING

Stimulus-naming effects at different stages of motor paired-associate learning by J. H. Cantor, 47

Role of response imagery on stimulus recognition by B. C. Tatum and H. C. Ellis, 137
A sequential analysis of the partial reinforcement extinction effect in children by G. Miyao and L. S. Meyers, 143
Attention and the measurement of perceptual learning by D. LaBerge, 268
Semantic and associative factors in probability learning with words by L. M. Schipper, B. L. Hanson, G. Taylor, and J. A. Thorpe, 291
A detailed examination of mediation in PA learning by J. C. Yuille, 333
Stimulus encoding selectivity at high degrees of paired-associate learning by E. A. Lovelace and J. D. Savage, Jr., 425
Passage organization and imposed learning strategies in comprehension and recall of connected discourse by F. J. Di Vesta, C. B. Schultz, and T. R. Dangel, 471
Some characteristics of word encoding by D. D. Wickens, 485
Higher-order encoding: Process or state? by N. F. Johnson, 491
Memory codes and negative transfer by E. Martin, 495
Coding of nonsense vs the detection of patterns by F. R. Restle, 499
Experimental analysis of coding processes by L. Postman and S. Burns, 503

PROBLEM SOLVING

The concreteness of attributes in concept learning strategies by I. D. Nahinsky, F. L. Slaymaker, A. Aamiry, and C. J. O'Brien, 307
Mental set and mental arithmetic by I. Biederman, 383
Processing demands during mental operations by B. Kerr, 401

VERBAL PROCESSES

The effects of familiarity and practice on naming pictures of objects by D. J. Bartram, 101
The interaction of perceptual processes and ambiguous sentences by T. G. Bever, M. F. Garrett, and R. Hurtig, 277
On catching on to idiomatic expressions by S. A. Bobrow and S. M. Bell, 343
Sequence redundancy, rating dimensions, and the exposure effect by R. V. Kail, Jr., and H. R. Freeman, 454

SOCIAL PROCESSES

Race vs belief as determinants of attraction in a group interaction context by C. Hendrick, C. S. Stikes, E. J. Murray, and C. Puthoff, 41
Perceptual encoding in comparative judgments of race by K. E. Friend, 80
Perceptual vs conceptual categorization by S. K. Reed and M. P. Friedman, 157
Attention decrement, temporal variation, and the primacy effect in impression formation by C. Hendrick, A. F. Costantini, J. McGarry, and K. McBride, 193
Self-perception and characteristics of premanipulation attitudes: A test of Bem's theory by S. A. Chris and H. D. Woodyard, 229
Learning effects in information integration: Manipulation of cue validity in an impression formation task by I. P. Levin, 236
Obedience as a function of experimenter competence by L. A. Penner, H. L. Hawkins, M. C. Dertke, P. Spector, and A. Stone, 241
An adding result in impression formation by A. M. Lugg and H. F. Gollob, 356
Social comparison, attraction, and choice of a comparison other by P. R. Bleda and C. H. Castore, 420
Prior induced affect and sex differences in attraction by P. R. Bleda, P. A. Bell, and D. Byrne, 435
